CAREER PLANNERS & JOB SEEKERS
ON-LINE REFERENCE GUIDE

November 2021

The Career Planners & Job Seekers On-Line Reference Guide is your starting point for planning the career or finding the job that fits your profile. Inside this guide are notable websites or tools aimed at directing your career or job path towards professional fulfillment.

Arranged alphabetically by topic, career planners and job seekers have at their fingertips a host of website information waiting for exploration. Topics ranging from apprenticeships and career exploration to educational resources and volunteerism with much in between are included to organize your journey (Iowa Workforce Development’s IWIN page at http://iwin.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov/additional-LMI-publications is a terrific starting point!). Upon discovery you will no doubt come across additional information not included in this directory that is beneficial. Whatever your destination, choose to use this guide and become a well-informed and enlightened career planner and/or job seeker.

As a caveat, and despite periodic updates, websites do and will continue to change with little warning. In addition, this publication does not endorse any mentioned resource nor claim to be an all-inclusive or universal document. Rather, as a condensed sampling of available resources (including non-profit, for-profit, government, etc.), it serves as a starting point for the career planner and/or job seeker. Ample beneficial information is provided. Please do not hesitate to contact myself or anyone listed in this publication with comments or suggestions. We would appreciate it. Now, let your journey begin...
